Reports of Officers

PRESIDENT

Once again the year has come to a close, and it is time to evaluate the activities and achievements of the Winston-Salem Junior League. The detailed reports of the individual committees will be given by the Chairmen, so this report will be a summary of the over-all picture.

I am glad to have the opportunity of reviewing briefly the events of the past year and to thank publicly the Committee Chairmen and each individual member of the League for their cooperation, faithfulness and dependability which has given this year what success it has had.

In November, Miss Gloria Chandler, Staff Radio Consultant of A. J. L. A., made us a visit. Our Radio Plan, under the direction of Miss Charlotte Demorest, had made tremendous strides, and the value of the program was recognized by the community. So successful had been the Radio Plan, that it received nationwide publicity as a pioneer project worthy of duplicating in other cities. With such a past record, we realized our responsibility did not end with the termination of Miss Demorest's contract. We turned to Miss Chandler to help us set our course for the continuation of the program.

At the December meeting the budget and new set-up were fully explained to the League by Mrs. Linville Martin, head of the Community Radio Council. A vote was taken by mail and an overwhelming majority agreed that the League, with the assistance of the Community Council, finance the Radio Council for a period of three years. Our pledge amounts to $2,500 per year, and the Community Council has contributed $3,000 to be spent over the same period. We were fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Bruce Williams to fill the important job of Executive Secretary. From the report of the Radio Chairman, you can see how the program has expanded.

Our other big undertaking this year has been in the field of the Cultural Arts. After a thorough investigation, the need for money to be spent here seemed at this time to take precedent over Public Welfare, to which we have contributed so generously in the past. With careful consideration and conferences with the proper authorities, the Arts Committee presented a recreational program and ensuing budget to the League. This program had the sanction of Miss Virginia Lee Comer, who through her several field visits here, understands so well our community and our opportunities for serving it. The program and budget were received enthusiastically both by the League and the community. A $1,000 donation was allocated to the Wachovia Historical Society to make possible the opening of the Museum for several days a week under a director. The attendance at the Museum has been gratifying.

The other phase of the Cultural Arts program was the decision to secure for the city a Director of Arts and Crafts for a period of three years—the salary not exceeding $3,000 a year. There have been several interviews, but to date such a person has not been employed.

Again the League voted to give financial support to the Piedmont Festival which is entering its third successful year. The amount of $500 has already been turned over to that organization.

Plans are going ahead for an office on the sixth floor of the Pepper Building. Our Thrift Shop has had one of its most prosperous years, and with our large financial commitments for the coming years, we may look to it as a means to help us carry out our plans.

Attendance has continued to be a problem. This year it has been best solved by luncheon meetings. Whether this type of meeting will be a permanent solution is a debatable question.

I will not go into detail concerning the roster of members serving on almost every committee in the city. This you may read in the report of the Placement Chairman. The influence and prestige of the Junior League should make us very proud.

Our financial budget for the next three years is a large one. But we must do more than fulfill our financial obligations if we are to be successful. Each one of us must acquaint herself with our endeavors and unite in interpreting them to the community. Only then can we succeed.

This year hasn't been a fair exchange, for I have received so much more from serving the League than I have been able to give in return. It was an interesting experience, and I thank you for having given me the opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN H. WALKER

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

During the year April 1, 1944 through March 1945, a total of thirty-eight personal letters were written by the Corresponding Secretary. This total includes six letters to the National Junior League office or officers, fifteen letters concerning local Junior League business not pertaining to membership, twelve letters to provisionals and five miscellaneous letters.

The 1945-1946 Yearbook was compiled, edited and distributed.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE HANES

RECORDING SECRETARY

The active membership for 1944-45 was 115. The following meetings were held:

Board: Nine regular, one adjourned, three call.

League: Nine regular.

Respectfully submitted,

DIANA L. DYER

ADMISSIONS

The Membership Committee met five times between July and October to consider candidates for Provisional Membership. Twenty names were submitted to the Board of Directors, and nine were elected. The 1944-1945 Provisional Members are as follows: Miss Ann Bennett, Miss Johnny Bennett, Mrs. Tom Edwards, Miss Carol Glenn, Mrs. Huber Hanes, Jr., Mrs. John Ogburn, Jr., Mrs. Clifton Pleasants, Mrs. William Struthers, Jr., and Miss Margaret Vardell.

JUNIOR LEAGUE BEAUTY PARLOR, INCORPORATED

For the year ending April 1, 1945, the net profit of the Junior League Beauty Parlor was $1,023.37. The year's pledge of $2,500 was paid to the Junior League. This pledge was met from last year's profits. The present bank balance, March 31, 1945, is $1,739.91.

The loss of two of our best operators, to open a shop of their own, left us from May through September with only three operators. One of these was part-time. During this period, ten to fifteen appointments each day had to be refused, and we lost a number of our oldest and best customers. Every effort was made to obtain good operators.

Mrs. Lelia Weavil is our most-efficient manager and gracious hostess. The Shop has the best of supplies and equipment. We have continued to close on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock since June, 1944.

We have four operators. One has just completed her training. We are very proud of one of our operators, Miss Jewel Hillard, who took the Canteen Course at night and works at the Canteen her only afternoon off.

Miss Marian Bialac visited the Shop for three days in November and helped the operators with the use of Bialac cosmetics for the customers.

Helen Curtis sent representatives three times during the year to teach the operators the latest in cold wave permanents.

At the present time the Shop is making money. We shall continue to give you the best possible service and ask your loyal cooperation.

CHILDREN'S THEATER

Two plays were given by the Junior League of Winston-Salem during the past year. "Titian," by Tully, was given April 25th, 26th and 28th, 1944, as the last production of the 1943-1944 Children's Theater Series. Three performances were given in the city's three high school auditoriums to a combined audience of approximately thirty-three hundred children. Sixty-two League members participated in the performance.

On November 30th and December 1st three performances of "Aladdin" were given, as the first of the 1944-1945 Children's Theater Series. This play was also given in the three high school auditoriums to approximately thirty-three hundred children. Fifty-four League members took part in the production.

ARTS REPORT 1944 - 1945

Many gratifying developments occurred in the cultural field in the year following the second visit from Virginia Lee Comer, Art Consultant from A. J. L. A. Community Service Staff. These can be found in her report.

The Arts Committee formulated their plans for the year from Miss Comer's advice: "Conditions of Winston-Salem indicate that the League would be wise to strengthen already established agencies; i.e., museum, library, recreation department, public schools and no matter what new activity the League might follow, it should not jeopardize its established contribution to the Children's Theater and the Piedmont Festival."

Last summer League girls assisted with the work of the Festival by serving on various committees and selling tickets. The Festival closed its second successful season, in spite of the polio epidemic, which meant cancellation of the children's concert. A great deal more emphasis was put on the Arts and Crafts Exhibit last year. The League contributed $600 to the support of the Festival.

No program was planned by the Arts Committee in the Fall of last year other than cooperation with the Children's Theater to produce the play, "Aladdin."

An outstanding contribution was made by the League in volunteer service in cooperation with the Community Radio Plan. League girls assisted with in-school broadcasts in the fourth and sixth grades of Wiley School by going into classrooms with visual aids, interpreting to children information about foreign countries they were to hear over the radio on the series, "Books Bring Adventure." These volunteers were not only making a valuable contribution to public schools but also demonstrating how the arts and radio can be coordinated. Books were purchased from the radio series and contributed to the Negro branch of the public library.

Volunteer service was continued in the Recreation Department, however the girls were hampered in their work by lack of sufficient supplies. There is a definite need for organization in the community of all volunteers in recreation.

At the January meeting the League voted to supply funds for the salary of an Art and Crafts director in the City Recreation Department. It was believed that the director over a period of time would arouse in teachers, children and parents a desire for a greater participation in art in Winston-Salem, and more opportunity for a broader art program.

The League also made a financial contribution to the Wachovia Museum in order that its doors may be open a few days each week, for a period of three years. Plans are going forward now under the new arts committee to set up a working committee for the museum in order that, among other things, story-telling can be included there for children.

The League has a great deal to look forward to in the coming years in the cultural field. The groundwork has been started. The challenge is yours to accept and go forward. The sky is the limit!

EDUCATION

The Educational program of the Junior League for 1944-45 was influenced by the Education Committee's questionnaire answered at the beginning of the year by the League members. High-lights of the answers were: a majority preferred nine meetings a year lasting one and one-half hours, usually in the morning. Speakers and movies were the two most popular choices. The meetings were planned to be varied as to time and place in order to reach as many members as possible.

The Annual meeting was held in May at which time Miss Virginia Lee Comer from A.J.L.A. gave some of her impressions of her Arts survey in Winston-Salem. The meeting in October featured a Thrift Shop Style Show. Miss Gloria Chandler of A.J.L.A. spoke in November at a luncheon meeting on "Radio."

Rabbi Rosenthal spoke at a night meeting in December. The January meeting was in the morning. Mrs. T. O. Moore presented the Arts Committee's report concerning the Arts and Crafts Director for the Recreational Department and the plans for a director at the Wachovia Museum. February was also a morning meeting with the Flying Safety movie "Learn and Live", showing educational methods in the Air Force.

Dr. Eugene Pfaff, Director of the Southern Council of International Relations, spoke on "Your Stake in the Peace", following a luncheon in April.

Mrs. Stratton Coyner was the Provisional Chairman and planned the course following the National League's "Basic Provisional Course Outline". At the first meeting Mrs. Coyner explained the Course. The following members spoke on the local League's work: Mrs. Marcus Wilkinson—Placement, Mrs. John Whitaker—Public Relations, Miss Ann Pepper—Magazine, Miss E. Sue Cox—Newssheet, Mrs. George Price—Education. Mrs. Linville Martin spoke about the Association of Junior Leagues of America. At the second meeting held at the Thrift Shop the provisionals learned about the shop. Mrs. George Walker told also of the League's history and finances.

Each provisional was assigned a different aspect of community life for study and prepared a paper on it. She then presented it to the other provisionals. In conducting a meeting of her own rather than listening to lectures the girl learned far more. At each meeting in addition to either the Education Chairman or Provisional Chairman was a League member particularly interested in that certain phase of the community.

The Community subjects were as follows with the name of the member following the provisional's: "Who Lives Here?" Kate Ogburn—Mrs. R. A. McCuiston, "Where It Lives" Johnnie Bennett—Mrs. John Whitaker, "It Makes Its Living" Ruth Pleasants—Mrs. Thomas Follin, "Families and Children Are Its Concern" Betsy Ford—Mrs. Marcus Wilkinson, "It Looks To Health" Carol Glenn—Mrs. George Walker and Mrs. James Fain, "It Goes To School" Ann Bennett—Mrs. M. E. Miller, "It Enriches the Lives of Its Citizens" Lily Struthers—Mrs. Thomas Moore, "Radio" Jane Hanes—Mrs. Linville Martin and Mrs. Irving Carlyle, Mrs. R. B. Crawford, Jr., explained the Children's Theater's past and present at one of the meetings.

In addition there were two panels; Miss Mary Garber conducted the one on "It Manages Itself" when Mr. Irving Carlyle, Mr. James Hanes and Mr. Ralph Stockton were the speakers. "It Plans Together" was the final meeting summing up the community study with Mrs. Linville Martin, Mrs. Irving Carlyle and Miss Caroline Waggoner.

The provisionals have been placed in volunteer jobs and their study and sincere interest in the Junior League and their community will be an inspiration to the "continued education" of us all.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCES OWEN PRICE

HOSPITALITY

In experimenting to improve attendance our efforts were concentrated on luncheon meetings which were held at the Reynolds Airport and the Robert E. Lee Hotel. More members were present those times than at any other meetings this year. Our expenses were only several dollars more than our budget of $85.00.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH M. DYER

MAGAZINE

Throughout the past year the Magazine has continued in its war-time format with no change in policy. Mrs. James Dawson continues to be editor.

A complete file of the magazines and correspondence has been kept and will be turned over to the new chairman.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE PEPPER

NEWS SHEET

The Newssheet for 1944-45 was published in nine issues using the newspaper format. All issues will be bound for filing purposes.

During the year the Newssheet committee covered in each issue the activities of the Junior League members; the projects of the League as a whole; the service projects of the community; and on a few occasions subjects of national interest.

The attempt of the committee was to keep a record of important achievements of the League and to present certain community problems in which the organization was interested.

One issue was devoted to the national elections, setting forth the policies of both presidential candidates. The aim of that issue was to get every member of the group to vote.

In the December issue we published (for the first time in print) a report on the juvenile detention facilities in our city. (A committee soon afterwards was formed to take steps to improve the conditions.)

A public opinion column was started to which all members were urged to contribute their ideas on any phase of League, community, or national problems.

We should like to take this opportunity to thank the Junior League husbands who were the editors of our April newssheet and who made possible the first "Junior League Esquire."

Respectfully submitted,

ELEANOR SUE COX

PLACEMENT

The second week in October the Placement interviews were held in the Community Volunteer Office. A mimeographed copy of Placement opportunities was given to each girl to help her choose her volunteer work. There are three members who have never "submitted" themselves for a Placement interview.

The following Compilation for the first six months of the Placement year will show the agencies in which our volunteers are placed.

Community Welfare Agencies—Family Service Agency, Toy Shop, Radio Committee of Community Council, Community Volunteer Office, United War Fund Drive, Juvenile Delinquency Survey.

Community Character Building Agencies—Arts and Crafts instructors in Recreation Department, Story Tellers in Recreation Department, In-School Broadcasts, Girl Scout Leaders, Den Mothers for Cub Scouts, Y.W.C.A. Industrial Club Leaders, Y.W.C.A. Girl Reserve Leaders.

Community Health Agencies—City-County Clinic, Health Consultants Office, Maternal Health Clinic, Bookmobile at Baptist Hospital, Cancer Control Drive, Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Campaign.

League Agencies—Thrift Shop, Newssheet Staff, Childrens' Theater, Telephone Committee.

Junior League Members sat on these Boards: Y.W.C.A., Wachovia Historical Society, Parent-Teacher Association, Christmas Cheer, Red Cross Executive Board, Girl Scout Council, Family Service Agency, Travellers' Aid, Goodwill Industries, Civic Music, Junior Red Cross, Executive Board of Community Council.

The League had three representatives on each division of the Community Council, Family and Child Welfare, Health, Leisure Time, and Negro Welfare.

This year the majority of League members has given a great amount of leadership and much needed help to our War Agencies and Community agencies. Possibly, the coming year will bring a lessening of war work. We will have new Community demands. To an organization founded on volunteer service, let us assume these new obligations along with our old ones with a new determination and vigor.

RADIO

It was decided at the beginning of the year that the first job for the League Radio Committee would be to make the A.J.L.A. transcription series, Books Bring Adventure, available to the schools and to promote the series through the librarians, students and teachers. Correlated, interpretive story telling prior to each broadcast, together with appropriate exhibits, was taken over by the Arts Committee.

Nine forty-five on Wednesday morning was the time jointly decided upon by the radio station, teachers of the grades to which the broadcast would be beamed, and the radio committee. Books Bring Adventure, stories of children in the Allied Nations taken out of well-known children's books, began December 11 and ended February 7. Teachers, as well as students, seemed enthusiastic and by the time the series had really begun in earnest, the majority of the colored and white schools in the city had obtained the necessary facilities to receive these weekly programs.

After this series ended, the in-school broadcasts, which had from the beginning been closely tied-in with the Community Radio Council, were turned over by the League Radio Committee to the Children's Programming Committee of the Radio Council. It was felt that in this way overlapping of efforts would be avoided, and that, most important, future in-school broadcasts would benefit because of the additional promotion through sub-committees already set up under the Children's Programming Committee. The next series, therefore, Up and Down the Scales, was handled directly under the Council.

The Radio Committee was put on the budget for the first time this year. Out of these funds the Books Bring Adventure series was rented and later purchased for the permanent record library of the Community Radio Council. Out of these funds also came material for promotion in the schools and incidental aid for the Council.

By the end of the year 1944-45, it was generally felt that the League Committee should not have a radio project of its own, but should try to find the best way possible to help the over-all Radio Council. The power and the responsibility of interpretation would rest with the League Radio Committee, interpretation to the League of the work of the council is trying to do, and the place it is filling in the community. At the same time, it would, ideally, interpret to the Council what the League expects it to accomplish and what its community responsibility should be.

It will be remembered that the contract with radio consultant Charlotte Demorest ended January 1, 1945. The future of the Radio Plan was therefore the foremost question that presented itself in the Fall of 1944 to the League as a whole, to the League radio committee and to the community. At this time, it was clearly brought out that the demonstration, started in the Fall of 1943, was no longer looking solely to the future, but was a "going concern" which had already proved its worth, in part, to community agencies. Foreseeing the Radio Council's great interpretive possibilities, therefore, the Community Chest requested that the organization be continued and promised financial support. And so—after its December meeting, the League voted that the Radio Council be continued for three years. The League voted to give $2,500 per year to be added to the $1,000.00 per year that the Chest earmarked for this purpose. Under the new set-up Hannah Williams took over Charlotte Demorest's job January 1 in the position of Executive Secretary; Douglas Angel was appointed as director of the Workshop.

During the year Gloria Chandler, A.J.L.A. Radio Consultant, was in Winston-Salem on two visits to meet with the Radio Committee, the Junior League Board and the Radio Council. During her October visit she was guest speaker at the Junior League monthly meeting.

The League was represented at two outstanding conferences in the spring of 1944—the Association for Education by Radio at Columbus, Ohio, and a conference on children's programs at Newark, New Jersey. Radio Consultant, Charlotte Demorest, and the Radio Chairman attended the Columbus conference and a Radio Committee member, Elizabeth Dyer, and the Radio Chairman attended the event in Newark, New Jersey.

THRIFT SHOP

The year ending March 31, 1945, has been a most successful year for the Thrift Shop, the profit, $2,748, having been the largest in its history.

In June Mrs. Perry and three committee members went to Charlotte to see their Junior League Thrift Shop. From it we gained a lot of good ideas, some of which have already been put into operation, and others that we hope to use.

In September improvements were made in the shop, after waiting two months to get a priority for the lumber. The toilet was enclosed, shelves built, a dust-proof closet built and painted, thus enabling the shop to handle better clothes.

At the October Junior League meeting a Thrift Shop "fashion show" was held in an effort to show the members what kind of merchandise sells best and what is needed.

During the past two years the shop has had an increasing better class of trade, and has also served and helped clothe a class in the community who could not trade elsewhere. Because of a lack of children's clothes we have had to turn away people who have heretofore depended on the shop.

The shop has had a larger commission business than ever before, paying $2,538 for the year. About half of this was paid to non-league members who have heard of the shop and the good it does in the community.

The shop has given clothes to the Family Service Agency, to the Salvation Army, to the Russian War Relief Drive, books to the Baptist Hospital bookmobile, individual gifts of clothing to needy people and books to the colored Y. W. C. A.

Again this year the shop has suffered from a lack of volunteer helpers, causing the shop to be closed at lunch time, but the volunteers who have come have been faithful and have given immeasurable help. Mrs. A. C. Perry's untiring interest in the shop has benefitted the members and customers greatly and has brought many new customers into the shop.

WAYS AND MEANS

The chief task of the Ways and Means Committee is making and adjusting a yearly budget. In addition to this, the Committee has the responsibility of recommending to the Board changes in financial policy. In line with this, it was deemed advisable to finance the Community Radio Plan in conjunction with the Community Chest and Council. This will mean an expenditure of $2,500 annually for three years, beginning January 1, 1945.

In February the need for an expanded Arts and Crafts program in the Recreation Department was presented by the Chairman of the Cultural Arts Committee. The League voted, unanimously, to pay not more than $3,000.00 annually for a period not to exceed three years toward the salary of an Arts and Crafts instructor for the Recreation Department. In addition to this, $1,000.00 was presented to the Wachovia Historical Society for a part-time museum director.

The Junior League Beauty Parlor pledged and paid to the League $2,500.00. The Thrift Shop pledged $1,000.00 and paid to the League $1,500.00 in excess of this pledge.

Respectfully submitted,

LOIS DEHART
